CHICAGO COIN CLUB

After a lapse of eleven years, the Chicago Coin Club offers an Annual Bulletin in this its 51st year. It is made possible by a generous cash gift from late member Richard McP. Cabeen, and it is respectfully dedicated to his memory and that of his devoted wife, Blema.

The Bulletin was first issued in March of 1936 and thereafter quarterly to March of 1942. Annual numbers were published in 1943, 44, 47, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 55 and 57. A souvenir booklet was issued on the occasion of the 500th meeting on September 14, 1960. The monthly meeting notice and news letter, known as the "Chatter" is now in its 21st year. Such have been the Club's publications which were issued on a more-or-less regular basis.

While some of the previous publications have contained lists of the charter members, various officers, current members and brief historical sketches of the Club, this Bulletin presents some innovations. In addition to the list of officers, for example, there is a listing of the various Club award recipients from the inception of each award. For the first time the membership list is complete rather than being of current members only, with an asterisk (*) denoting those who are current. We regret that this brings to light a few inconsistencies in membership numbers.

The historical sketch is thought to be accurate and complete as to important features, albeit brief. Mention of the Club's library, found in some previous Bulletins, is missing due to the fact that it was turned over to Roosevelt University on a permanent loan basis in 1966. The Club's material was integrated with works in the University's library, which is open to Club members' use on presentation of a Club membership card.

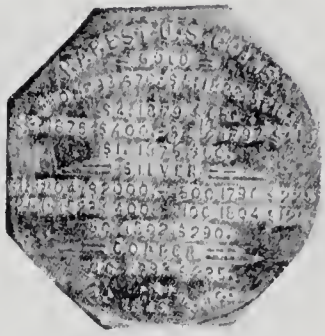
A BRIEF HISTORY

This fiftieth anniversary Bulletin of the Chicago Coin Club would be incomplete without a historical sketch of those years during which the Club was a vital factor in the development of organized numismatics. While no brief history can capture fully the spirit of the organization, it is hoped that this sumary will create a greater awareness of its earned tradition of the fraternalism, scholarship and numismatic service exemplified by the Chicago Coin Club.



Chicago Numismatic Society
1903-1915

The Chicago Numismatic Society was the first numismatic organization in the city. Although it had no official connection with the Chicago Coin Club, some of the Club's founding members were active in the group which provided the experienced leadership for the Club. The Chicago Numismatic Society produced a series of beautiful medals during its twelve years of existence. Among them was the fine one by J. Henri Ripstra, depicting the Athenian owl on its obverse, that was given to the founders and to each new member who joined in succeeding year.

Chicago Branch No. 1 of A.N.A.

At the Rochester, N.Y. A.N.A. convention in 1912, the Association authorized local coin club branches. Branch No. 1 was organized quickly at the convention, the first meeting being held in Chicago on November 12, 1912, with 13 members present. Well-known coin dealer Ben Green was elected president. In January, 1914, Branch No. 1 ceased to function when Mr. Green, the organization's sparkplug, died.

The metallic membership card shown here served as a receipt for dues also and each member's number was counterstamped on the card.

From that time until early 1917 there was no organized coin club in the Chicago area. Branch No. 1 was reorganized and held its first meeting February 7, 1917, with a membership of ten and dues of 25c a year. Membership in Branch No. 1 was restricted to A.N.A. members but as the number of coin collectors interested in a local club affiliation increased, Branch No. 1 was reorganized into the present Chicago Coin Club.

Chicago Coin Club

On February 14, 1919, the first meeting of the new Club was held at the Sherman Hotel. Fifteen members were present and the officers of Branch

No. 1 were elected its officers. They were: C. N. Hinckley, president; Alden Scott Boyer, vice president; and R. E. Davis, secretary-treasurer. All applicants for membership before March 5 were designated as charter members, and at the next meeting 33 charter members drew their numbers by lot.

Other important milestones in the Club's history include the following: January 19, 1938—Incorporation in the State of Illinois as a non-profit organization; February, 1939—Adoption of a seal and the motto "Docendo Discimus" (We Learn by Teaching), the seal having been designed by William G. Rayson during his presidency; November 1, 1941—The Club became Life Member No. 60 of the American Numismatic Association through the generosity of M. Vernon Sheldon and J. Douglas Ferguson (it is worthy of note that this was the last such membership issued by the A.N.A., its bylaws being changed soon thereafter to limit life memberships to individuals); February, 1968—The Internal Revenue Service granted a tax-exempt status to the Club after long negotiations sparked by President Grebinger; August 16, 1969—The American Numismatic Association awarded the Club its 50-Year Membership Certificate.

Addendum

This is, in condensed form, the history of the corporate Chicago Coin Club. But the issuance of the A.N.A. 50-Year Membership Certificate brought to light a heretofore unpublished facet of that history. An obscure record card in the A.N.A. files revealed that: 1) Branch No. 1 dues were paid continuously, even during the inactive period of 1914-16, and 2) that dues payments were credited to Branch No. 1 for several years after the formal organization of the Club.

Thus it is proven that the present Chicago Coin Club has an uninterrupted record of annual dues payments back to 1912 until it became a life member in 1942. So, with its ancestor Branch No. 1, it is the oldest A.N.A. member club. This information was ferreted out by the persistent efforts of A.N.A. Historian Jack W. Ogilvie.

100th Meeting

The 100th meeting of the Chicago Coin Club was held on June 1, 1927, during the presidency of Alden Scott Boyer. A 100th meeting medal was struck in bronze and distributed to the membership.

Central States Numismatic Society

During the period of 1935 to 1944 one of the notable numismatic achievement involving the Chicago Coin Club was the formation of the Central States Numismatic Society. During the presidency of William G. Rayson in 1938 a committee was appointed to explore the feasibility of organizing a midwest numismatic association. Lee F. Hewitt, I. T. Kopicki and M. V. Sheldon, who served on this committee are the fathers of the CSNS which held its organizational meeting on April 23, 1939. Many of its officers—presidents, vice presidents, governors, secretaries, etc.—have come from the Club's membership, and a number of its annual conventions have been held in Chicago under the guidance of Club members.

200th Meeting

The 200th meeting was held October 2, 1935 and was celebrated with a dinner and auction at the Atlantic Hotel. No medal or token was issued for this event.

The first Ladies Night was inaugurated in May 1934 and for many years one meeting night was planned by our fair sex and devoted to their hobbies and exhibits.

25th Anniversary

The 25th anniversary of the Club was celebrated in 1944 with Paul Pennington as president. The Club issued a beautiful medal in silver with a bust of Lincoln on the obverse. It was designed by A. Smith of Cincinnati, Ohio.

400th Meeting

The 400th meeting was held on May 14, 1952, during the presidency of Harry X Boosel. For this occasion, instead of a medal, a Mexican one peso coin was counterstamped with the Club's initials and appropriate inscription.

500th Meeting

To celebrate its 500th meeting September 14, 1960, the Club had an unusual medal produced, and printed a 12-page booklet. The medal was designed by member James A. Friberg, architectural designer, and was struck in gold, silver and bronze of barrel contour, size 72 x 52 mm. The obverse shows the world with expanding comet-like lines originating at Chicago; vertically reading CHICAGO on the left and 1960 on the right, all struck incuse. The top panel is the ornate Chicago water tower erected in 1869 and the bottom panel shows the building skyline, looking down the Chicago River from the Lake's edge. The 707 jet airliner projects the future to come, and is cameo struck along with the two panels. The reverse shows the figures of the occasion and the Club's corporate seal with its Latin inscription "Docendo Discimus" (we learn by teaching). Silver medals were sold at $10 each, bronze at $5 each, and a set of three anodized aluminum at $7.50.

600th Meeting, 50th Anniversary

These two milestones were celebrated on January 8, 1969, at a dinner meeting in Harding's Restaurant on Wabash Avenue. A 600th meeting "goldine" token was available to members, and the Club's beautiful 50th Anniversary medal was delivered to those who had placed advance orders for it in fine silver. Later in the year it was made available in bronze to members and non-members. It should be recorded that member Richard McP. Cabeen and Mrs. Cabeen attended this meeting, their last with us. "Dick" had made a cash gift in excess of $5000 to the Club the previous year, which made possible the publication of this Bulletin as well as other projects.

The 2¼-inch 50th Anniversary medal, designed and sculptured by Elgin, Ill., artist Trygve A. Rovelstand, was issued in fine silver on advance subscription to members only (one went to the sculptor) and in bronze following the celebration. Only 113 were struck in silver and 182 in bronze, being produced by the Medallic Art Company, New York. Meyer & Wenthe, Chicago, struck 250 of the "goldine" dollar-size six-hundredth meeting tokens.

Medal of Merit

Awards

At the 1955 annual banquet meeting in the Congress Hotel, the first medals were awarded under the Club's new medallic program. Medals authorized and presented were: silver medal to past presidents, silver medals of merit, bronze medal for exhibits at specfic meetings, and bronze literary medal. In 1968 the Richard McP. Cabeen annual exhibit award, in the form of a plaque, was inaugurated.

From time to time, usually at special meetings or events the Club has issued various award or recognition medals, such as the one pictured here. No record has been maintained of these medals or of the recipients. In the past several years a plaque bearing one of the octagonal Lincoln medals by Ripstra has been given to each person who presented a program at a regular meeting.

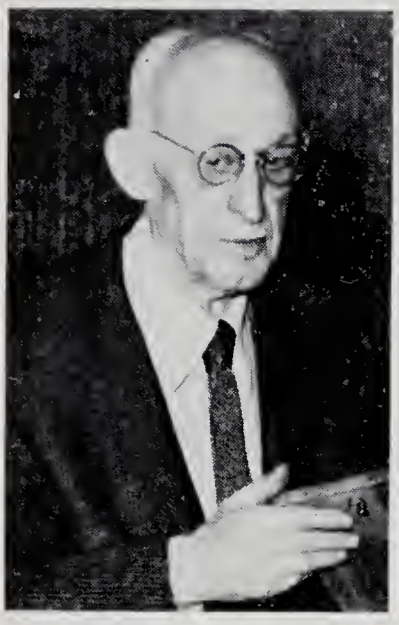
A Chicago Coin Club "Who's Who"

Any attempt to single out members who have contributed notably to the advancement of the Club and numismatics in general would tax the ability of Solomon himself, and fill too many pages in reciting their accomplishments. Obviously the founders, charter members and all of its officers, listed elsewhere herein, are due great credit for the success and longevity of the Club. So also must praise be given to award winners for their special contributions.



"DICK" CABEEN

The membership of the Club has given numerous officers to the national organization, the A.N.A., including Presidents Wm. Jerrems Jr., Judson Brenner, H. O. Granberg, Moritz Wormser, Charles Markus, Alden Scott Boyer, Nelson T. Thorson, J. Henri Ripstra, Loyd B. Gettys, M. Vernon Sheldon, Leonel C. Panosh, Oscar H. Dodson and Matt H. Rothert; Governors T. E. Leon, George H. Blake, B. Max Mehl, H. A. Sternberg, Wm. F. Dunham, Harry X Boosel, Edward Fogler, R. S. Yeoman, James W. Curtis, C. H. Ryan, Glenn B. Smedley and Harold R. Klein (all presidents had served previously as governors except Jerrems, Brenner and Boyer, the latter having served several years as first vice president); Vice President Ragnar Cederlund and Treasurer R. E. Davis who did not serve in any other A.N.A. offices; Editors Lee F. Hewitt, Burton Saxton, Elston G. Bradfield and Glenn B. Smedley. Not about to be forgotten are members Harry T. Wilson, A.N.A. general secretary for 15 years, Lewis M. Reagan, general secretary for 17 years, Burton H. Saxton, either editor or advertising manager of The Numismatist for 15 consecutive years, and Louis S. Werner, A.N.A. sergeant-at-arms for 25 years and still active as sergeant-at-arms emeritus.

Among the names of great dealers who were or are C.C.C. members are B. Max Mehl, M. H. Bolender, B. G. Johnson, Charles E. Green, Louis S. Werner, Aubrey E. Bebee, Arthur M. Kagin, Abe Kosoff, John G. Ross, Ben C. Dreiske and J. V. McDermott. Better known publishers, writers and lecturers include R. S. Yeoman, Lee F. Hewitt, Chester L. Krause, Arlie Slabaugh, Kenneth Bressett, O. H. Dodson, Richard Cabeen, Margo Russell, Wm. A. Pettit, Harry X Boosel, Hugh M. Knight, Neil Shafer and Russell Rulau.

Most forests have a relatively few giant trees which stand out prominently, but they alone do not make the forest. In the forest there are average size trees, saplings, bushes and shrubs—it takes them all to make the forest, even though only a few are seen from the outside. So it has been and is with the Chicago Coin Club—never an organization of a few giants only. Each of the 850 who has joined its ranks during the past half-century has contributed in one way or another so, if you would know the names of all who have helped make it a truly great and vital club, read every one in the complete list of members. Some of the great have fame, but many who lack fame have greatness too.

In 1968 the Club officers approved the Richard McP. Cabeen award to be given annually to stimulate interest in regular meeting exhibits. At each meeting three members evaluate the exhibits on a point basis, considering the exhibits and talks about them. Awards go to the members accumulating the highest number of points during the calendar year.

The medallic portion of the 1966 A.N.A. convention badge depicted the old water tower in Chicago and the Commercial Hotel in Chicago, the latter having been the birthplace of the Association. The "diamond" near the top of the water tower denoted the Diamond Anniversary of A.N.A. No convention medal was issued that year.

GLINTS and GLEANINGS

On the title page of this Bulletin is a picture of the reverse of the Club's 50th Anniversary medal, designed by sculptor Trygve Rovelstad of Elgin. Especially since this design has been and will continue to be used on Club awards, a few remarks about it seem to be in order.

It features the Hexagon, a constellation of six stars of the first magnitude surrounding Betelgeuse, one of the nearest stars to earth and the first star to have its size determined (1920). Sirius, at the base, is the brightest star in the heavens. Others making up the Hexagon are, clockwise from Sirius, Procyon, Pollux, Capella (at the apex), Alderbaran (the red star) and Rigel.

This constellation is visible in the southern sky in early evenings during January-March. Besides representing the constellation under which the Club was born, this design symbolizes man's concern with astral exploration.

The obverse design (see page 11) is a modern adaptation of the head of Arethusa on the ancient Greek coins of Syracuse, with a subordinated phoenix added. The phoenix and the motto I WILL beneath its head refer to the Chicago fire of 1871 and the City's determination to rise again from its ashes.

Among the numerous distinctions of Chicago Coin Club is that of having been host to more A.N.A. conventions than any other club in the nation. The very first convention was held in 1891 in the old Commercial Hotel, with others as follows: 1893, Douglas Pavilion of the Columbian Exposition; 1911, Art Institute of Chicago; 1920, The Art Institute; 1929, Congress Hotel; 1933, Congress Hotel; 1943 and 1944, LaSalle Hotel (restricted by war-time travel to little more than business meetings); 1956, Pick-Congress Hotel (first convention with registration over 1000); 1966, Pick-Congress Hotel.

The 1956 convention was given the name CHI-ANA, suggested by Lee Hewitt, and was publicized with wooden nickels featuring the name. The committee received one inquiry as to "where is CHI-ANA located? It is not listed in the directory of U. S. Post Offices."

The Club has participated in National Coin Week activities numerous times and won several awards, including first place in Class A. clubs in 1952.

* * * *

Some of us remember the private, semi-private and public numismatic events that once were held, such as the all-day annual club meetings which I recall in 1949, 1951, 1952 and 1955 (there were others). Members of the Club participated in the World Hobby Expostion in the Coliseum in 1951; the Know Your Bank Week in 1953, sponsored by the Illinois Bankers Assn.; and the Leisure Time Exposition at Navy Pier in 1957. We "met the public" and introduced many persons to the hobby at these and other such events.

A suggestion: Why not hold the 1971 annual banquet meeting on a Saturday and make it a full day of exhibiting (with special awards) and old-fashioned good fellowship? If you like the idea, talk it up.

* * * *

In reveiwing records of the Club, this statement was found in the Bulletin of September 1941: Lee Hewitt was absent from the July meeting, being the first meeting he has missed since May of 1932. That probably is a record which still stands.—Glenn S.
